

💬 Friend: "Why not trade some gold to get what you need?"

😬 Me: "I don't have gold... but my treasure is in heaven."

God's Wealth Is Sufficient

My friend wasn't talking about gold in my hand. He was suggesting that I turn to God, whose riches never run dry. 🌱 In the book of Haggai 2:8, the Lord declares, "The silver is mine, and the gold is mine." 💰 What an invitation to trust!

Too often, we look to our own resources—bank accounts, connections, or effort—and come up empty. Yet God owns it all. His wealth isn't just material; it's peace, provision, and grace in abundance. 🙏

Ask, Seek, Trust

"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find." (Matthew 7:7)

When we feel like we have nothing left, God invites us to ask Him to provide from His storehouse. His provision may not always come the way we expect, but it will always be exactly what we need. 🌱

So, whether you have gold or not, bring your need to God. Trade your worry for faith, your striving for trust. The true treasure is knowing that God will supply all your needs according to His riches in glory (Philippians 4:19).

🔗 Challenge: What are you holding onto that you could surrender to God today? His wealth is waiting—ask, seek, and receive.
