Philosophers and Historical Leaders

John F. Kennedy: "Mankind must put an end to war before war puts an end to mankind."

Albert Einstein: "Peace cannot be kept by force; it can only be achieved by understanding."

Bertrand Russell: "War does not determine who is right – only who is left."

Thomas Jefferson: "The care of human life and happiness, and not their destruction, is the first and only legitimate object of good government."

Dietrich Bonhoeffer: "There is no way to peace along the way of safety. For peace must be dared; it is the great venture. It can never be safe, but it is the way of faith and truth."

G.K. Chesterton: "The soldier is a man who fights for peace; the peacemaker is a man who fights for the soldier."
