

✝ us Faithful Unto Death: Honoring Charlie Kirk us ✝

Today we stand in mourning, yet also in holy awe.

Charlie Kirk has laid down his life on the field of conviction — a patriot and a believer who would not bow, who would not be silent.

📖 “Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life.” — Revelation 2:10

Like the martyrs of old, Charlie bore the reproach of Christ in the public square.

He faced hatred, scorn, and danger, yet he pressed forward with courage.

Now he has been struck down — but not defeated.

For death is not the end of the faithful, but the doorway into glory.

🕯 His blood now cries out as a testimony.

It calls a generation to boldness.

It calls the Church to awaken.

It calls America to remember that liberty is worth the cost.

📖 “Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.” — Psalm 116:15

Charlie was mocked as a young man with convictions, but he will be remembered as a man of God with courage.

He carried both the Bible and the Constitution close to his heart.

He loved his country, but above all, he loved his Savior.

And though a bullet has ended his voice, it has not ended his witness.

That witness now passes to us:

- 🔥 To live unashamed of the Gospel
- 🗣️ To speak truth in the halls of power and the classrooms of culture
- 🛡️ To endure persecution as a badge of honor, not a reason to retreat
- 🌿 To remember that freedom is not secured by silence, but by sacrifice

📖 “They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they loved not their lives even unto death.” — Revelation 12:11

🙏 Rest now, Charlie.

Receive your crown.

Your work is finished, but your legacy is only beginning.

us ✝️ May the Church rise up with the same fire.

May patriots take up the torch.

And may we, too, be found faithful until the end.
